Hello Stephen,

Welcome to your Personality Profile, please check the birth details of your horoscope are correct. This report sets out to give you an assessment of your personality and character development by interpreting the different parts of your birth chart.

Your birth chart represents a map of the solar system for the exact time and place of your birth, it's a blueprint of your personality and represents a set of potentials, with the contents being added through the experiences of life.

Most people are aware of the Sun's zodiac sign that they were born under, however, it's not only the Sun sign that exerts a powerful influence over the birth chart and character. The Rising Sign, the Moon, the planets, the angles they form to each other, called 'aspects', their zodiac sign and house positions also play an important role.

As you read through this analysis, you will occasionally notice that contradictory information may be given. This is to be expected, as each individual's character is extremely complex. For example, at times we can be aggressive and confident, and at other times withdrawn and moody. And if planetary patterns seem to be repeated time and time again, that's because the analysis is focusing on a particular and very important strength or weakness within your character.

The birth chart is comprised of three basic factors.

- 1. The Planetary Aspects (angles) formed between the Sun, Moon and planets, as seen from the Earth, are represented by the coloured lines in the centre of your chart and the intensity is indicated by the number of stars each aspect is given in the report.
- 2. Each planet is located in a particular Sign of the Zodiac. The symbols for each Zodiac Sign are placed around the edge of the birth chart, Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius, and Pisces.
- 3. Each planet is also located in a particular House, labelled 1 to 12 in the birth chart.

How the planetary positions of your birth chart relate to each other are interpreted on the following pages outlining your potential development. Your birth chart, is indeed unique, although many people may have, for instance Mars in Scorpio, or Venus in Capricorn, and hence have certain traits in common, the number of ways in which the three factors of Planetary Aspects, Zodiac Signs and Houses can be combined is infinite.

The 'Aspects' are given a Star Rating from one to five to show their relative importance in the Profile. To the right of each pair of 'aspect' symbols is a group of five stars ★☆☆☆☆, the more dark stars there are the more important the connection. The keys for the planets and the other symbols and terms used are given at the back of the report.

Personality Profile Interpretation

Your birth chart shows the exact positions of the planets at your time of birth. It also tells you the sign of the Zodiac that was rising at your time of birth, known as your 'ascendant'. How the planetary positions of your birth chart relate to each other are interpreted on the following pages outlining your potential development. The interpretation begins with your overall character and temperament.

Stephen's character

Stephen's dependability

You are solid and dependable, having perseverance and staying power. You can endure situations, far longer than most, determined to see them through to the end. In fact, you often have the end in sight even before you begin. You are strongly sensual, in the sense of needing to feel the physical proof of things. That is, 'what can't be touched isn't real'. This applies equally to intellectual concepts, you like abstractions to be explained and made understandable in a logical, practical, way. When they are not, you can show your objection by becoming stubborn and uncooperative.

Stephen's emotions

You might find it difficult at times to relate to, and appreciate, others on an emotional and instinctive level. This may also apply to your experience of your own inner life. Try to maintain a more permanent sensitivity towards your own and others feelings.

Stephen's temperament

Stephen's adaptability

You have a many-sided, even complex, psychology. This is reflected by your correspondingly erratic and nervous temperament. Your desire for, and pursuit of, change and variety may give you a reputation for instability and novelty-seeking.

Stephen's capabilities

You might at times lack that old get-up-and-go when action and initiative are called for. Therefore, you may find that you function best in already established surroundings, or when you are being organised by others.

AS

The Ascendant or Rising Sign

Represents the area of life concerned with your sense of self-identity, the impression you give and how others see you.

AS in

Self identity

Systematic and well organised, no detail is overlooked, with perfection being your goal. Nevertheless, if you can keep excessive nervous energy under control, then a great deal could be achieved throughout your life.

AS ★★★★★

Creative drive

You'll have powerful creative talents, and at times even feel that you could succeed in almost anything you try to do. While this is probably true, there's also a tendency to keep putting things off until tomorrow! Nevertheless, you'll more than likely become a professional in whatever career you choose. The pressure of competition and the demands of proving your worth in your chosen field will provide the drive to realise your full potential.

AS   ★★★★★☆

Able

You know how to communicate and express your thoughts to others. You'll rarely be misunderstood because you generally only express your opinions when you think you have something worthwhile to say. Aware of your own creative and intellectual abilities, as well as your limitations, you make the best of your talents.

However, not being too keen on physical labour, you'd prefer to make your living through your intellectual and mental abilities. You're able to attract attention to your ideas and will take chances if you think that there's a possibility of turning ideas into cash.

AS   ★★★★★★

Experience

You may occasionally hold yourself back, and fail to take advantage of opportunities as a result of insecurity. At times you may become over-concerned about how you're seen by others, and may therefore not express yourself as you would like, for fear of being put down or looking foolish.

However over the years as you overcome your reluctance and hesitation, each success will increase your self-confidence, and your determination will eventually take you to the top of whatever mountain you choose to climb.

AS   ★★☆☆☆

Rebel

You're something of a rebel, in your way of thinking and in the way you act. You value freedom and independence in all areas of your life, and will constantly be seeking new experiences as an escape from situations that have become routine and dull. This aspect also indicates a great creative potential and a well developed intuition. When you follow your hunches you'll usually be right.

AS   ★★★★★☆

Focus

You can be extremely sensitive to criticism. Unfortunately, this can occasionally make you miss opportunities to advance yourself, possibly because of a fear of failure.

This aspect also occasionally inclines you to daydream about your potentials more than actively seeking to realise them. Perhaps communication with your parents was unclear or confused in some way. Maybe you didn't get the support you needed in choosing a career possibly even now still finding it difficult to know just what it is you want out of life.

As a result, at times you may tend to spread yourself too thinly and become involved in too many diverse activities, often taking on more than you can efficiently handle. Try to focus on specific fields or goals.

AS   ★★★★★☆

Stubborn

You have an intensity and power that enables you to persuade others to do your bidding. You don't take challenges to your ideas or desires lightly, and will tend to express your point of view strongly even if, deep inside, you know that you are wrong.

The Sun

Your essential self, the centre of your being. It indicates what you are striving to become as an individual.

Vitality

You're basically a steady, reliable type of person, with strong willpower. Once you have set your mind on a course of action, you can carry it out with persistence and determination. The fixed nature of the sign, however, makes it difficult to change your course once you have started, even if it becomes apparent that it's wrong for you.

Persistence can turn to stubbornness. Like the bull, you may be patient and slow to anger, but when roused can be furious. Often your anger can be sparked off by feelings of jealousy or possessiveness.

9th house

Your search for knowledge and awareness through travel and higher education. The law, religion and the use of your higher or more intuitive mental faculties.

Self expression

You'll enjoy travel and study, and are, when necessary, able to change the direction of your life quite dramatically. You will have already, or are likely to, travel quite extensively as the increased awareness and knowledge that you gain through travel will give you greater faith in yourself and in life in general. If physical travel isn't possible, then there's always inner travel through self awareness and meditation. However, you may have to watch the tendency to be constantly seeking new horizons and new subjects before you have properly taken in or consolidated what you have already discovered or learned.

Ideas

You may occasionally lack objectivity in your thinking, identifying too much with your opinions. Although you like to express your thoughts, your words may not always be backed by the facts, but more of an expression of how you would like things to be. Nevertheless, with more objectivity and tolerance of others' opinions you would have a tremendous skill in communicating ideas and concepts to others in a clear and understandable way.

Determined

You're able to work towards your goals with persistence, determination and self-discipline. You have ambition, but you don't feel the need to step on others in order to succeed. Because of this, others will be prepared to help you on your way because they won't feel threatened. You're able to handle responsibility and turn difficult situations into creative opportunities.

Independence

There's a strong urge for complete independence, often experienced through relationships. You may occasionally find that secure situations are disrupted, usually by a partner, or other people with whom you have a relationship.

Indeed, you'll often find yourself attracted to highly individualistic or rebellious people, and your experiences with such people will draw out the more erratic side of your own nature. In this way you can discover your own particular genius and bring a more spontaneous and original quality into your life.

Creative potential

You may occasionally experience some confusion concerning your sense of who you are, and where you're going in life. Past experiences and events may occasionally raise issues that force you to examine yourself honestly and understand how you drew these experiences to you and what you must learn from them. However, at times, you'll often evade reality by escaping into a world of dreams and fantasy.

There will also be times when you tend to underestimate your abilities with the fear of failure preventing you from doing things that you would be fully capable of. In time, and probably after a great deal of self analysis, you will become more confident about your own creative potential and set higher goals for yourself.

Self control

You have a powerful need to be in control. You feel, perhaps as a result of childhood experiences with your parents or some other authority figure, that life is a constant battle to dominate or be dominated. Because of the nature of Pluto you may not even be fully conscious of this tendency, therefore at times you can alienate others without your being aware of the reasons.

Build up of inner turmoil or tension will eventually be released, often explosively; hence you can exhibit perfect self-control in the most difficult circumstances, but hit the roof over something trifling and unimportant.

The Moon

Represents the emotional and compassionate side of your nature and your immediate emotional reaction to life pleasures and problems. It also indicates attitudes instilled in early childhood.

Habits

You're naturally persuasive and can easily attract others to you. You react very quickly to situations around you, but remember to look before you leap!

You're potentially volatile and overpowering, but sincere and loving as well. You have an enthusiasm for life, and a naturally direct approach, but you may occasionally need to develop patience. You may be patient and understanding, but if you're caught unexpectedly, or your feelings are hurt, you can surprise yourself and others with the strength of your anger and aggression.

7th house

Relationships, how you express yourself in your relationships and what qualities you seek in others. Your marriage partner, at least the first major relationship with that kind of commitment.

 in 7th House

Attitudes, emotions and specific needs

You enjoy romance and in particular, security within romance. You may seek this security from another, or you may be the one who provides this for someone else.

You're very receptive to the emotional needs of others but need to beware of the danger of committing yourself to a relationship purely because you feel that the other person needs it.

Emotional strength

You possess deep feelings that may occasionally be difficult to get to grips with or to understand. Your personal life may often be the scene for intense emotional power battles in which one or both of you attempts to manipulate the other through feelings of guilt, jealousy and possessiveness. The source of these confrontations probably lies in your past. You will need to understand that source before you can effectively deal with the problems at hand.

With this aspect you'll go through changes throughout your life that will force you to look within yourself to deal with problems and answer important questions but you'll always emerge from these periods a stronger person than you were before.

Mercury

Represents your communication skills and how you think and receive information from others.

 in

Mentality

Your mind is practical and down to earth. You have the ability to concentrate for long periods of time. You'll generally not make snap decisions, needing time to assimilate all the facts and arrive at a sensible, and usually practical conclusion. However, this same tendency may occasionally make you too slow when reaching decisions. At times you may also lack flexibility in your outlook as a result of a certain amount of stubbornness!

in 9th House

Communication skills

You'll enjoy study and travel. Your intuition will enable you to grasp concepts and ideas from a broad viewpoint. You're therefore generally open to the philosophies and belief systems of other cultures, and you may find greater sense and meaning in these than in the accepted beliefs of your own society or culture.

With this placing you will search, or you should do, for a belief system that satisfies both the rational and intuitive aspects of your mind. There is a danger, however, that once you feel you have found such a system, you will only accept the facts that seem to confirm your beliefs and conveniently overlook those that do not so you'll need to always keep an open mind.

♀ △ ♃ ★★★★★

Practical

Your mind is generally practical and organised. As a result, you're able to set yourself realistic goals, which you can then work towards with persistence and determination.

You also have the ability to apply your mind to disciplined study, often bringing your own creative interpretation to whatever subject you are interested in. You don't voice your opinions unless you're sure of your ground, but when you do, you are able to make constructive use of every piece of relevant information that you possess, and to communicate clearly and authoritatively.

♀ ♀ ♃ ★★★★★☆☆

Arguments

You're a real live wire. You're lively and energetic, but occasionally your energy may stem from nervous tension, which you'll need to control and channel into productive ends.

Your mind is active and alert, always open to new ideas, but you'll also occasionally need to slow down, making the time to take in new information before rushing off to start something new.

Whilst you're generally open to new ideas, occasionally you'll filter the information received, hearing only what you want to hear, and reacting to other people's opinions before they've had a chance to finish or explain themselves.

You don't like to be proved wrong, and will more often than not defend a position purely for the hell of it. You like a good argument (you'd call it a debate) but you should take care not to be too aggressive when expressing your opinions.

♀ ♃ ♃ ★★★★★

Listen

Your thoughts are often influenced by powerful feelings and emotions, probably resulting from past painful emotional experiences.

However, whilst you undoubtedly also have a powerful intellect, you may not always be able to use it to the full until you have brought to consciousness and come to terms with whatever is undermining your confidence and faith in your own abilities. You may also occasionally be prone to misunderstandings with others, as at times you may not be able to articulate your inner thoughts and feelings.

Nevertheless, you're fiercely resistant of any attempt to influence your way of thinking. You insist on the right to think your own thoughts and reach your own conclusions. This is not always a bad thing, but sometimes it's necessary to realise that we can't be right all the time, and be prepared to listen to others who have had a greater experience and understanding of life than ourselves.

Venus

Represents how you express your emotions within love, marriage and other personal relationships. It also indicates your attitude towards money, possessions and your aesthetic values.

♀ in ♀

Capacity for love

You thrive on change and variety in your social life. In any relationship, you'll need space to do your own thing, and to go where you want when you want. You'll therefore quickly break free from any relationship that you feel is limiting your freedom. It's not that you're unable to love it's just that you're never quite sure whether what you feel today is what you'll be feeling tomorrow. Lovers will also have to satisfy your intellectual needs as well your physical needs.

10th house

Represents your ambitions, what you aim for and hope to achieve. Your career or position, your relations with authority figures and the way you experience your parents.

♀ in 10th House

Love and what you value most

Your career and reputation is important to you and you'll probably seek a career that allows you to express your artistic abilities and will prefer harmony and co-operation in your professional life rather than back-stabbing and power struggles. Whatever you want to achieve with your life will have to be done with grace and style.

You need to work with people you like and can get along with and you may form many romantic attachments as a direct result of your career activities, or you may become involved with someone who can help and support you in your career goals.

Adventurous

You value your own personal freedom and can be easily angered if you feel emotionally hemmed in. Your temper can be explosive, but at the same time this anger passes quickly, and rarely leads to any long term rift.

You have a need for adventure and new experiences, and you're able to enjoy yourself in social situations, not afraid of being the centre of attention. However, there will be times when others are put off by your rather over-forceful approach especially in matters of romance.

Charming

You possess an easy-going charm that others feel at ease with. You're always willing to give praise where praise is due. You're an outgoing person who loves life and enjoys being with friends, but you're by no means superficial or vain. Possessing sympathy and understanding, friends often turn to you when they're feeling down, or are in need of a sympathetic ear from someone who can listen without judging.

Unrealistic expectations

You'll have to take care not to place unrealistic expectations on your relationships. There's also the danger of attracting partners who are elusive and difficult to pin down. You might see qualities in your partner that aren't really there and fail to see qualities that are there. It's therefore advisable to take some time to get to know your partner before any firm commitment is made. Glamour will attract you.

Mars

Represents your sex drive, stamina and how aggressively you assert yourself and express your desires.

Driving force

You'll generally put a great deal of energy into organising your practical and material affairs. No matter how tight money is, you'll somehow always manage to pay your bills and provide the basic necessities of life.

At times, however, you may also be over-critical both of yourself and others, with a tendency to constantly analyse motives, and a need to understand the whys and wherefores of everything you do.

12th house

Surrendering to forces that are beyond your control, a higher power or ideal. Greater self realisation and spiritual goals. Large institutions such as hospitals and prisons, where many people end up if the self-surrender described above is overdone, or made to the wrong ideals.

Stamina and assertiveness

You may occasionally have a vague sense of irritation or anger, the source of which you can't really put your finger on. There may be times of emotional confusion when you're not entirely sure of some of your motivations or you're unable to let go of your aggression therefore holding it all in.

However, the upside of this placing is that you're able to put the needs of other people especially those who do need help before your own and fight willingly on their behalf.

Driving ambition

You have a driving ambition to achieve something worthwhile with your life. When challenged you don't admit defeat easily, always eager to fight back. You can therefore be a considerable force to be reckoned with!

You possess the optimism and faith that you will eventually get what you want if you try hard enough.

However, at times you'll need to be careful to evaluate just what is possible and not get caught up in too many unrealistic plans, or promise more than you can deliver. If you can do this, then your life can become an adventure in which you meet challenges with enthusiasm and the inner certainty that you'll succeed.

Jupiter

Represents expansion, your sense of fun, optimism and generosity. It also gives information concerning your religious and philosophical beliefs.

♃ in ♀

Optimism and understanding

You often create opportunities for yourself through the ability to understand details as well as being able to see how they fit into the larger picture. But you're also wary of overly ambitious plans, preferring to make your way through the gradual acquisition of skill and knowledge, until you reach the point where you can confidently use what you have learned to improve your present situation.

Philosophical or religious beliefs will have to stand the test of your critical intellect before you will accept them, which is fair enough, but beware the tendency to dismiss ideas simply because you do not understand them, or be excessively critical of people whose belief system conflicts with your own.

You're also often intrigued by the deeper side of people, literally being interested in their spirit of being. You just can't help analysing and trying to understand the hidden aspects of someone's character or a particular situation. You have a very good understanding of what makes things tick, on a physical, emotional and spiritual level.

♃ in 12th House

Optimism and understanding

No matter how dire your circumstances may become, you have a deep-seated faith that life itself will provide for your needs, and indeed you'll more than often be saved in the nick of time from impossibly difficult circumstances by what appears to others to be good luck, but in fact it's luck which you've created from your own thoughts and actions.

♃ □ ♃ ★☆☆☆☆

Expectation

You could become obsessed with the need to achieve at all costs.

Never satisfied with what you have already gained, you may find yourself constantly seeking to press ahead and do several things at once, tending to brush aside other people's objections or advice to slow down, possibly being convinced that they are trying to hold you back. At times, however, those closest to you may feel neglected and left out, and the resulting domestic problems could bring life to a crashing halt.

However, if you do take care to include others in your plans, and don't try to do everything yourself, then you'll find that you have the support you need to achieve whatever you desire, and still have time to relax and just enjoy life!

Saturn

Represents your sense of responsibility and limitations. It shows how you react to setbacks and the areas in which you are most fearful and insecure. Nevertheless, it is also the planet that teaches the important lessons of life and can become your greatest strength.

♄ in ♀

Challenges

You work with a particular attention to detail, as doing a thing thoroughly and correctly is important to you, perhaps at times too important. As a result, you may be a stickler for rules, and be over-critical of anyone who doesn't or simply can't come up to your standards.

♃ in 12th House

Setbacks and insecurities

You may occasionally be suspicious of other people's motives. At times you'll need to completely withdraw from others in order to realign mind, body and soul but people who don't really understand you may feel that they are being personally rejected. You may find it difficult to make a commitment to anyone, or anything, out of a fear of losing your own individuality. If you can find the courage for some honest self-examination, and get to the root of what is really bothering you, you'll find or rediscover, the courage of your convictions.

Inspiration

You are able to see a vision of the future and work patiently towards it. You're aware that creativity and originality needs to be brought down to earth if it is to be effective in any real sense.

There will be times however, when you'll abandon projects simply because they have become too boring and too normal. Not only do you have the need to be different, but you also the potential to inspire others with your vision and therefore you would be good at teaching or public speaking.

Realising dreams

At times you may feel unable to achieve a sense of real security, feeling that the results of all your efforts can at any moment be washed away by some unforeseen tide of events. At times there's also a conflict between your sense of reality and your dreams, and you may therefore swing between being a hard-headed pragmatist and a hopeless dreamer.

Changes

You have a deep sense of change. You realise that nothing lasts forever. For you, the most enduring possessions are the personal growth and understanding gained from experience, both good and bad. You leave nothing to chance, you plan your goals and objectives carefully, including all the steps and possible pitfalls on the path to their completion. When you set out on a particular path you have the strength of will to reach your goals against all the odds.

Uranus

Represents the expression of your need for freedom and independence and the way you choose to experiment with life. Uranus is the motivation behind your future dreams.

♃ in ♀

Independence

Changes of fortune in joint finances, insurance, tax or inheritance matters. It would therefore be wise to not become too dependent on other people's money as it could eventually lead to financial ruin or cause resentment. Powerfully charged emotions will be secretive and possibly difficult to control. Some phases in your life may also end suddenly and irreversibly - but lessons will have been learned. Fascinated by metaphysics and the meaning of life and death, an understanding of these subjects will be sought, especially in later years.

3rd house

Your relationship to the immediate environment. Experience concerned with communication, learning, intellectual and educational skills. Relationships with immediate relatives, brothers and sisters if you have any.

♃ in 3rd House

Individuality

Your perceptions are sharp. You're able to rapidly absorb and analyse information, picking up subtle nuances and apparently unimportant pieces of information that others may overlook completely. With your own intuition filling in the gaps, you're able to rapidly build up a complete picture of any situation in which you may find yourself, and just as importantly, to convey this picture to others clearly and intelligently. If you have to make snap decisions, your initial intuitive response usually turns out to be the right one.

♃ ♋ ♃ ★★☆☆☆

Environment

Most people around your age are part of a generation that will try to combine scientific and mystical thought. Environmental issues will also be important to you.

Neptune

Represents your spiritual self, dreams, imagination and creative abilities.

♆ in ♈

Idealism

Born between 1970-1984 you are part of a generation that will that will develop a need for higher religious, mystical and spiritual values. Travel will attract you as will the exchange of ideas and religions with other countries.

4th house

Family and cultural conditioning, your a sense of belonging, deep inner feelings and habit patterns. Experience of your parents, your own home, and conditions surrounding you during the second half of life.

♆ in 4th House

Self sacrifice and uncertainty

There may have been a need for considerable self-sacrifice as a child. It may be that one or both of your parents were absent, or too involved in helping others to give you the love and attention that you needed. It is possible that your parents had a drug or alcohol problem.

In any event, you will have a deep yearning to find some kind of "spiritual home", where you can feel that you really belong. You may open up your own home to people and groups who are seeking some deeper meaning in their own life, or you may drift from one home to another with some deep-seated sense of dissatisfaction making it difficult for you to settle down in one place.

Generational influences

Starting in 1942 and for the next hundred years, everyone born during this time will be affected by the changes taking place in the world's collective psyche. The keynote of this entire period will be the complete transformation of our existing scientific, religious and political belief systems.

Pluto

Represents the secretive side of your nature, your obsessions and shows us how to come to terms with and deal with your deepest insecurities.

Forces of change

Pluto was in Libra between 1971-1984. You were born at a time when more peace and arbitration was sought to try to avoid world-wide war.

2nd house

Possessions and what you own, accumulation of wealth and resources or acquired skills and gifts which give you a sense of value, worth and personal security.

Secrets, powerful obsessions

Deep feelings surround the issue of your financial security. At times you may fear that somehow all that you possess will be destroyed or taken away from you. As a result you may tend to become overly possessive of your finances. On the other hand this fear may not be so irrational but the result of an early, possibly painful, experience. Either way, there will be periods in your life when matters concerning your possessions will undergo some kind of upheaval or complete change.

Whatever the case, your life and deeper feelings will undergo occasional changes throughout your life. This will not always be a bad thing, even if it is at times painful, you must remove the old and outworn forms in order to make way for greater personal growth and the possibility of more fulfilling experiences.

The Midheaven

Represents your ambitions and potential for achievement.

Career

Always active, you're something of a live wire who enjoys dominating a conversation and putting across your point of view. However, what you say and do will more often than not centre around yourself, rather than others! Ever optimistic, you do have an innate power to make dreams come true and if you can keep excessive nervous energy under control, then a great deal could be achieved throughout your life.

Future growth

You must learn to love and give generously regardless of what you see as others imperfections. Learn to lie with skill.

Developing experience

As has been said on may an occasion 'make love not war' and try to be of help to others.
